

I strongly oppose taxing internet emails whether it's via cable or telephone lines. Using the internet saves money for consumers, corporations and government. Taxing internet usage is NOT the way to correct a state or federal funding deficit. It's the Wide World Web...NOT Wide Ohio Web! Ohio Gov Taft (and Voinovich who's in cahoots with AOL) need to keep their hands out of the everyman's pocket.